DETAILED ACTION

This office action is in response to the applicant's submission filed on 8/15/06/06.

Claims 1-55 are presented for examination.

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this office action can be found in a prior Office Action.

Claims 1-13, 18, 19-30, 35-47, 52-55 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Shiigi (us pat 6,564,249) in view of Sun et al (us 2002/0143994).

Claims 14-17, 31-34, 48-51 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Shiigi and Sun as applied to claim 1 above, and further in view of Lloyd et al us pat 6779178 (hereinafter Lloyd).

Shiigi, Sun and Lloyd are cited for rejection, in the last Office Action; the citations, which are applicable, are hereby incorporated by reference.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 8/15/06 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

As regard to applicant's argument that the prior art does not teach "chat record comprising one or more instant text messages from a currently ongoing instant text messaging session and handwritten stroke information message objects anywhere within said recording field to thereby annotate said one or more instant text message in said chat record". Examiner respectfully disagrees; Sun discloses using handwritten in a chat system (see Sun pg.3, par 0025-0027). Chat history record and writing in the chat system is inherent in the chat system. If one can use the handwriting in a chat system, it would have been obvious to one with ordinary skill in the art to implement handwritten stroke information message objects anywhere within recording field to thereby annotate one or more instant text message in the chat record.

As regard to applicant's second argument that "nowhere does Shiigi disclose or suggest that conventional text messaging are or can be integrated with its graphical message". However, the language of the claim does not express the conventional text messaging are or can be integrated with its graphical message.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
